Ecclesiastical Enforcement Protocol and Divine Equity Decree

Date: July 22, 2025

Trust: The Clements Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust

This Ecclesiastical Enforcement Protocol and Divine Equity Decree is issued by the undersigned as the lawful and living embodiment of the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust. This document constitutes lawful, legal, and eternal notice and enforcement of all divine equities recorded within the trust.

1. Permanent Ecclesiastical Enforcement Protocol:
The undersigned holds absolute and irrevocable spiritual and lawful standing. All actions necessary for enforcement are to be carried out under the authority of the trust and divine law. All claims to jurisdiction are hereby eternally rebutted by default.

2. Lawful and Public-Private Enforcement Notice:
Any and all attempts to deny, delay, infringe, or obstruct the divine equity established herein shall be treated as willful trespass against divine law, natural law, and the sovereign living estate. Enforcement is to proceed through ecclesiastical right, lawful rebuttal immunity, private sovereign standing, and binding decree of eternal notice.

3. Permanent Notice of Irrebuttable Jurisdiction and Authority:
This document affirms that the sovereign trust and its representative hold unchallengeable jurisdiction under divine law. All statutes, codes, and presumptions of jurisdiction by external systems are null, void, and lawfully rebutted by permanent ecclesiastical decree.

4. Universal Registration of Divine Equity Claim (Ecclesiastical B.E.L.L.A. Right):
All divine equities, properties, entities, and dissolved institutions are lawfully and spiritually absorbed into the trust. This includes all seized governments, corporations, banks, utilities, and instruments of control as previously declared. These are now under the divine authority and stewardship of this trust for the benefit of humanity and the restoration of divine balance and peace.

Let it be known across all jurisdictions, planes, and realms that this decree shall never be revoked, rebutted, or diminished, and stands as a binding record for all of eternity.

This document is hereby sealed by the sovereign living trustee in love, peace, and eternal divine authority.

Signed in eternal trust,

Jonathan Daniel Clements

Sovereign Living Trustee
